Parish Mission Statement

St. Julie Billiart Parish is a diverse, welcoming, contemporary Catholic community nurtured by Word and Sacrament. The Table of Christ inspires our faith and commits us to bring His message of hope to the world.

All Are Welcome

We are a community that welcomes the Christ, the Risen One who is revealed in the story of each person. We are a community that says, "ALL ARE WELCOME." We are a community of ...

- People of all ages — children, youth, young adults, middle aged and elderly.
- People of every marital status — single, married, divorced, separated, widowed and remarried.
- People of many races, national origins, languages, cultures and religious backgrounds.
- People who are straight, gay and lesbian.
- People who are native born and immigrants, documented and undocumented.
- People of all economic backgrounds — the poor, the middle class and the wealthy.
- People who struggle with hardships, handicaps, disabilities, mental illness and addiction.

Misión Principal

La Parroquia Santa Julia Billiart es una comunidad Católica diversa, contemporánea, abierta a todos y nutrida por la Palabra y el Sacramento. La Mesa de Cristo inspira nuestra fe y nos guía a traer Su Mensaje de esperanza al mundo entero.

Todos Son Bienvenidos

Nosotros somos una comunidad que acepta y recibe a Cristo, el Cristo Resucitado que se manifiesta en cada persona. Nosotros somos una comunidad que afirma, "TODOS SON BIENVENIDOS." Nosotros somos una comunidad de ...

- Personas de toda las edades — niños/as, jóvenes, adultos jóvenes, personas adultas, y personas de edad avanzada.
- Personas de toda clase de estado civil — solteras, casadas, divorciadas, separadas, viudas y personas que se han vuelto a casar.
- Personas de muchas razas, nacionalidades, lenguajes, culturas, y tradiciones religiosas.
- Personas heterosexuales y homosexuales.
- Personas nacidas aquí, inmigrantes, documentados e indocumentados.
- Personas de toda clase económica — pobres, clase media, y ricas.
- Personas que luchan con adversidades, des habilidades, enfermedades mentales y adicciones.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

The themes for today's readings are new beginnings, obedience, and faith. Regardless of the liturgical year, the first reading is always from Genesis regarding Abram and the Gospel is always the story of the Transfiguration. In the reading from Genesis, Abram, whose name means "father who is exalted", receives his calling from God to be the father to all peoples. This story begins the second major section of Genesis (chapters 12 – 50), the stories of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph. Abram also receives a blessing from God, one of the most beautiful in all scripture. Note that it is really 7 blessings in one. In Hebrew tradition, 7 represented perfection. God told Abram to leave his father's house in Haran (in northwestern Mesopotamia, now in southeastern Turkey) and travel with his wife to the land of Canaan, a very long journey. That was truly a new beginning – the beginning of salvation history. Abram was 75 years old at the time! Yet, he obeyed God's command without question. What faith he had! According to scripture, God did not change Abram's name to Abraham until he was 99 years old. The Gospel reading from Matthew is the story of the Transfiguration. Here Jesus true divine nature is revealed to Peter, James, and John. It also shows that Jesus is "the fulfillment of the law (Moses) and the prophets (Elijah)". Just prior to this reading, Jesus reveals to His disciples for the first time that He must suffer, die, and on the third day rise from the dead. He then tells them what it is to be one of His disciples. They must give up all things in order to follow Him. It is not an easy road to follow. Jesus only takes Peter, James, and John "up a high mountain". Note that it was only Peter, James, and John who accompanied Jesus in the garden at Gethsemane. The "high mountain" is again a reference to Mt. Sinai and Moses. There He is transfigured before them. Just as at Jesus' baptism, there is a voice from heaven saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased". However, unlike at the baptism, there is an additional phrase – "listen to Him". At that, the disciples "fell prostrate, and were very much afraid". When Jesus touched them, they saw only Jesus. He reassured them to "not be afraid" and told them to tell no one what they had seen until after the resurrection. The Transfiguration marked a new beginning for the disciples.

SAINT FRANCES OF ROME (1384-1440)
March 9

Nature and human nature—plagues and wars—turned late medieval Rome into a living hell, particularly for the sick and poor. Frances, by birth and marriage well provided for, was a devoted wife and mother; but like Benedictine Oblates, who to this day “pray and work” while living with their families and working in the world, she joined like-minded laywomen friends in ministering to society’s most vulnerable. Frances’ charity was not only “hands on” but “in home.” Her palace became a hospital after the plague claimed two of her three children. When her husband’s death ended their loving marriage of forty years, Frances joined other widowed Oblates in community. In an interesting link to the United States, our nation’s premier religious congregation for women of color, the Oblate Sisters of Providence, in 1833 established bonds of spiritual communion with these Oblates of Saint Frances in Rome. Though Black History Month is past, take a moment to learn about the good work that Mother Lange’s spiritual daughters are doing still and consider supporting them as a Lenten project:

SANTA FRANCISCA ROMANA (1384-1440)

9 de marzo

Francisca nació en una familia cristiana donde aprendió a amar a Dios y a los pobres. Contrajo nupcias muy joven, pero jamás abandonó su deseo de servir a los pobres, labor pastoral que fue apoyada por Lorenzo, su esposo. Además de ser ejemplar esposa y madre, oraba constantemente y salía del palacio vestida con ropas humildes para ir a visitar a los enfermos y llevar alimento a los pobres. Su amor por los marginados era tan grande que cuando azotaron inundaciones y pestes no dudó en abrir su palacio para que se convirtiera en hospital y refugio de damnificados, cuidando personalmente de ellos y ofreciéndoles alimento. Este amor por los pobres lo compartió con una de sus cuñadas, con quien no sólo practicó la caridad sino compartió el sueño de ser religiosa. Siendo esposa y madre fundó la comunidad de las Oblatas de María, cuyo carisma era vivir en el hogar sirviendo a los pobres. Se unió a esta comunidad religiosa una vez que enviudó y sus hijos crecieron. Para los ciudadanos de Roma fue un vivo ejemplo de Cristo. — Miguel Arias, © Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CELEBRATING SUNDAY FOR CATHOLIC
FAMILIES (Kara O'Malley)

This weekly guide is intended to help parents engage their children with the Mass and deepen their appreciation of the richness of their faith. The brief reflection on an excerpt of the Gospel is intended to spark your thinking about the Scripture with your family after Mass.

HEARING THE WORD: John 4:6-10
(excerpt of the Gospel on March 15, Third Sunday of Lent)

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?"
—For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.—
Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

REFLECTING ON THE WORD

... ON THE WAY TO MASS

Explore what it means to thirst physically. How do you feel when you're thirsty?

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS

The notion of thirst in today's Gospel moves from the physical to the spiritual. We hear that Jesus' offer of living water will quench a spiritual thirst. What is the living water?

LIVING THE WORD

This week learn more about the efforts of Catholic Relief Services (crs.org) to provide clean water to people around the world. Discuss how your family accesses clean water for drinking, cooking and cleaning. Contrast it with the situations of others living in poverty or war-torn areas. Pray that all people worldwide might have access to clean water.

CELEBRACION DOMINICAL PARA FAMILIAS
CATOLICAS (Kara O'Malley)

Esta guía semanal está destinada a ayudar a los padres a involucrar a los niños con la misa y a profundizar su aprecio por la riqueza de su fe. Esta breve reflexión sobre un extracto del Evangelio pretende despertar su interés sobre las Escrituras con su familia después de la Misa.

ESCUCHANDO LA PALABRA: Juan 4:6-10 (extracto del Evangelio el 15 de marzo, III Domingo de Cuaresma)

Entonces llegó una mujer de Samaria a sacar agua y Jesús le dijo: "Dame de beber". (Sus discípulos habían ido al pueblo a comprar comida). La samaritana le contestó: "¿Cómo es que tú, siendo judío, me pides de beber a mí, que soy samaritana?" (Porque los judíos no tratan a los samaritanos). Jesús le dijo: "Si conocieras el don de Dios y quién es el que te pide de beber, tú le pedirías a él, y él te daría agua viva".

REFLEXIONANDO EN LA PALABRA

.... EN EL CAMINO A MISA

Explore lo que significa tener sed física. ¿Cómo te sientes cuando tienes sed?

EN EL CAMINO A CASA

La noción de sed en el Evangelio de hoy se mueve de lo físico a lo espiritual. Escuchamos que la oferta de agua viva de Jesús apagará la sed espiritual. ¿Qué es el agua viva?

VIVIENDO LA PALABRA

Esta semana, obtenga más información sobre los esfuerzos de Catholic Relief Services (crs.org) para proporcionar agua limpia a personas de todo el mundo. Discuta cómo su familia accede al agua limpia para beber, cocinar y limpiar. Contraste con la situación de otras personas que viven en la pobreza o en zonas devastadas por la guerra. Ore para que todas las personas en todo el mundo tengan acceso a agua limpia.

OPERATION UNDERWEAR

In today's first reading, Genesis 12:1-4 Abram is called to journey to a new land. As we listen to God's Word we too are called to journey to a new land, a new way of being. We, Sheila Baldi, Marjorie Habenicht, Terrie Iacino, Jeanine Jensen, introduced ourselves in the bulletin as four women who are being called to a new journey. It is a journey with God's people who we may never see but who are in need of the very basics of life, as well as knowing that they are loved. We began a project called "Operation Underwear". It came to our attention that we could reach out to hundreds of migrants, men, women, and children who are being detained at centers in Mexico, by sending new underwear. Here we have a real opportunity to serve Christ in the migrant. We invite you to join us on this Lenten journey. For more information, contact Sheila Baldi: 408-930-1011, Marjorie Habenicht: 408-316-1769, Terrie Iacino: 408-506-3335 or Jeanine Jensen: 408-963-8260.

OPERACIÓN ROPA INTERIOR

En la primera lectura de hoy, Génesis 12: 1-4 Abram está llamado a viajar a una nueva tierra. Mientras escuchamos la Palabra de Dios, nosotros también estamos llamados a viajar a una nueva tierra, una nueva forma de ser. Nosotras, Sheila Baldi, Marjorie Habenicht, Terrie Iacino, Jeanine Jensen, nos presentamos en el boletín como cuatro mujeres que están siendo llamadas a un nuevo viaje. Es un viaje con la gente de Dios a quien quizás nunca veremos, pero que necesitan los conceptos básico en la vida, además deben saber que son amados. Comenzamos un proyecto llamado "Operación Ropa Interior". Nos llamó la atención poder llegar a cientos de migrantes, hombres, mujeres y niños detenidos en centros de México, enviando ropa interior nueva. Aquí tenemos una oportunidad real de servir a Cristo en el migrante. Te invitamos a unirte a nosotros en este viaje cuaresmal. Sheila Baldi – 408-930-1011, Marjorie Habenicht-408-316-1769, Terrie Iacino-408-506-3335, Jeanine Jensen-408-963-8260.
